INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING INFORMATION REQUEST

Use this form to obtain more information for courses delivered via the West Virginia Virtual Learning Network (WVVLN). Do NOT use this form for courses not offered via WVVLN.

To determine which schools offer credit for individual WVVLN courses, see the WVVLN Schedule of Classes web site (www.wvvl.org) for the current semester. Follow the link to CLASSES at either Colleges/Universities or Community/Technical Colleges. You can register only at an institution which offers credit for a specific course.

Please complete all spaces on the form.

Type of student: There are variations in how each institution defines "type of student;" however, the following terms are commonly used by institutions in the WVVLN consortium:

RETURNING OR CONTINUING – enrolled in classes in previous semester

NEW -- Freshman – have a high school diploma or equivalent and have not previously attended a college or university.
Transient – degree candidate at a post-secondary institution who wants to enroll for a specific course which can be transferred for credit back to his/her home institution. Requires permission form and prior approval from your home institution.
Transfer – previously attended (an) other accredited post secondary institution(s) and who wishes to enter a new institution and transfer credits earned at the previous institution(s).
Special or Non-Degree – wants to take course but does not want to be admitted to a program or become a degree candidate.

ADMISSION: If you have not previously been admitted to an institution, you must apply using that institution's application form. See the institution's web site for more information. Contact information is provided below.

FOR MORE INFORMATION: If you need further information about applying for admission, offered courses, or other aspects of enrollment, call the institution at the telephone number below. For more information on courses available, call WVVLN at (304) 327-4057.
